Docket No. G-04204A-08-0571

Gentlemen:

I am protesting the base rate increase that is coming before you. We are in a recession and everyone is trying to maintain their bills. This is not time for increase of any kind to be considered. Everyone should be doing their best to hold things as they are for the time being, not trying to make it harder for people.

I myself, have the house set on 65 degrees just to cut my heating bill this winter. I put more clothes on to keep warm. It doesn't help my hands as I can't work around here with gloves on. It is not just the elders I am thinking of but everyone. People are out of work and trying to take care of their families.

Please consider not doing this at this time.
